CONSTRUCTION TALKS

PROFESSIONAL ROLES IN CONSTRUCTION
 CO-HOSTED BY
 PUBLIC BUILDING COMMISSION OF CHICAGO & CITY COLLEGES OF CHICAGO
Friday May 8, 2020 12pm

Construction Talks is a series of collaborative outreaches that CTA host with multiple partners to ensure that individuals during the pandemic are made aware of training and workforce opportunities in the construction industry. This is an opportune time for us while social distancing measures are in place to provide information and insight to individuals looking to pursue opportunities in construction.

COMMISSION of Chicago

CORONA-VIRUS UPDATES

STAY HOME, STAY SAFE

Under Chicago's Shelter in Place order, individuals will no longer be able to take unnecessary trips, engage in public or private group activities, or participate in social activities at bars or nightclubs. These restrictions are necessary to prevent the spread of COVID-19 by mandating social distancing.

DO

With the order in place, individuals can still fulfill all of their essential needs, including:

- Traveling to obtain necessary supplies, including food, pet supplies, medicine, or take-out food.
- Attending medical or mental health appointments.
- Visiting private businesses that offer essential services, including pharmacies, gas stations, grocery stores, hardware stores, banks, and laundromats.
