Commissioner Rufus Williams next presented to the Board of Commissioners a report of the Audit Committee meetings on March 11, 2008 and May 1, 2008 which is summarized as follows:

- ◆ Appointment of Deloitte as Independent Auditor to perform Annual Audit for the year ended December 31, 2007 – The Audit Committee met on March 11, 2008 to consider the appointment of Deloitte as an independent auditor for PBC's 2007 Annual Audit and a proposed engagement letter from Deloitte dated March 11, 2008. Following discussion, the appointment of Deloitte as independent auditor was deferred pending receipt of additional information requested by the Audit Committee concerning the amount of fees, level of services and PBC's internal audit function.
- ◆ A further meeting was held by the Audit Committee on May 1, 2008 to consider a revised engagement letter from Deloitte dated April 28, 2008. Following a presentation by representatives from Deloitte concerning the plan for performing the 2007 audit, an extensive discussion concerning the amount and schedule for payment of audit fees, and on recommendation of the Director of Finance, Daryl McNabb, the Audit Committee approved the appointment of Deloitte as independent auditor to perform PBC's annual audit for the year ended December 31, 2007 for the sum of $190,000

- ◆ PBC's Internal Controls Plan – The Senior Director of Administrative Services, Edgwick Johnson, provided a report regarding PBC's internal controls plan. The goals of the plan are protection of assets, accuracy of records, operational efficiency and adherence by all employees to policies and procedures. Several components of the plan have been completed and an RFP will be issued for proposals to perform quarterly reviews of internal controls. The report was accepted.

The report of the Audit Committee was accepted.
